STEPHEN CUMMINGS

The vital statistics of Stephen's creative career speak for themselves: 4 albums as lead singer with The Sports, 9 solo albums, 1 ARIA award, 2 novels, numerous collaborations and side projects, and an almost embarrassing habit of attracting critical acclaim at every turn.

Stephen's latest album Spiritual Bum is a return to basics. Largely an acoustic affair, the album was recorded at home in his garage studio and features contributions from David Bridie, Rebecca Barnard, Shane O'Mara, Jeff Burstin and Ashley Naylor (just to name a few).

For more information on Stephen and his work, you're invited to take a guided tour of Lovetown, his comprehensive fan-run website:
